Join us for the first IHMRI Networking Evening of 2011 and connect with medical researchers, clinicians and health services colleagues from the Illawarra region in a relaxed setting. Complimentary refreshments are provided.

Autumn Networking Evening Presentation: 6.10pm - 6.25pm

Can unhappy workers deliver quality health services?

Dr Lindsay Oades, Director, Australian Institute of Business Wellbeing, Sydney Business School, UOW.

With the emergence of the science of positive psychology and positive organisations, what are our health service organisations doing to look after staff? In this presentation Dr Oades will sample recent evidence and practices from positive psychology - and discuss potential relationships between staff wellbeing and health service provision.

Event concludes at 7.30pm

RSVP Essential: 02 4221 4333 or ihmri@uow.edu.au
