For parents, caregivers & children:

What else can I read?

Below is a list of some publications about Borderline Personality Disorder as well as descriptions by the publishers. While the list below might be useful, it is not exhaustive. Project Air Strategy does not officially endorse these books or any of the recommendations within these publications, nor is it responsible for any effects or outcomes these books might have on readers.

The Weather House: Living with a Parent with Borderline Personality Disorder

By Lisa LaPorte and Ronald Fraser

Story and picture book targeted at school aged children with a parent with Borderline Personality Disorder. The book uses a weather analogy to help children understand the symptoms of BPD.

An Umbrella for Alex

By Rachel Rashkin-Shoot

Story and picture book for children with a parent with personality disorder. The book is designed to be read with a parent, caregiver or therapist and assists children to understand their caregiver’s stormy emotions.

How Are You Feeling Today Baby Bear? Exploring big feelings after living in a stormy home

By Jane Evans

Story and picture book written for children living in homes with domestic violence. The book assists children to understand and name emotions and provides information to adults about how to start discussing emotions with children.

Six Healing Sounds

By Lisa Spillane

Picture and story book for children to learn about emotions, relaxation techniques, mindfulness and self-compassion.
